

SALUTING OUR VOLUNTEERS

Is the tenth and last exhibit to be presented during Ottawa Little Theatre's
100th Anniversary Season.

This exhibit will remain on display in the Besserer Street lobby during the run of The Drawer Boy.

The life of this theatre is its passionate and devoted volunteers and employees. Without them there would be no theatre. The productions at OLT are professional in presentation due to the dedication, care and love that our volunteers have for live theatre. On average there are 300 active volunteers, from all walks of life. They bring their time and talents to become part of this creative process.

COSTUMES

Costume Designers, dress the actors to represent a period in time, and a personality.

FRONT OF HOUSE & HOSPITALITY

Volunteers are responsible for virtually every aspect at OLT.

MAKE-UP & HAIR

Make-up Artists and Hair Designers help the actor look the right for the part.

DIRECTORS, ASSISTANT TO THE DIRECTORS, ACTORS

DIRECTORS, ASSISTANT TO THE DIRECTORS, ACTORS

Directors — have a vision for the play, and make the authors' work come alive.

*Assistants to the Director —
support the whole production.*

Actors — create the characters you love (or love to hate!).

BACKSTAGE

BACKSTAGE

Set Designers and Decorators —

Properties Designers —

Sound Designers —

Lighting Designers —

Running Crew —

Create the mood; set the tone; depict the period and location; along with the items found or manufactured, to make the production come alive!